

Interfraternity Council at Arizona State University

Resolution Recognizing Member Fraternities Opting Into Fraternity Villas at Vista Del Sol Approved at Interfraternity Council Meeting on November 2nd, 2015

Whereas, special interest housing (SIH) provides a unique opportunity for Greek-lettered organizations at ASU to have a shared living experience; and,

Whereas, on campus fraternity residences provides the convenience of living on-campus in a physical environment that creates an identity and Fraternity presence; and,

Whereas, member fraternities should have the opportunity for members that share common values, goals, and beliefs to live together or in close proximity to one another; and,

Whereas, an on-campus fraternity experience contributes positively to the campus culture; and,

Whereas, on campus fraternity residences provides for a safe place for chapters to gather; and,

Whereas, on campus housing promotes closer community policing of member fraternity chapters; and,

Whereas, the community has developed the strong foundations, policies, and procedures to better selfgovern the community; and,

Whereas, a fraternity community has a greater likelihood of being developed when member organizations live in close proximity to one another; and,

Whereas, members may utilize on campus resources to ensure long-term academic success; and,

Whereas, chapter may opt to purchase additional common area house furnishings or decorate in a reasonable manner that positively illustrates the chapter; and,

Whereas, member chapters that opt in for Greek Villas will identify a house manager that will act as liaison between their chapter and Fraternity & Sorority Life Office; and,

Whereas, an on-campus residential experience transfers the burden of ownership, cost of utilities, and basic maintenance to the university rather than individual students or chapter housing corporations; and,

Whereas, fraternities may begin to identify factors necessary to build and foster a long-term relationship with the University as it relates to fraternity living needs; and,

Whereas, the IFC experience is heavily integrated within the Sun Devil Experience; and,

Therefore be it resolved, the Interfraternity Council at Arizona State University officially recognizes the following chapters for opting into the first phase of housing efforts: Alpha Epsilon Pi, Alpha Kappa Lambda, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi, Delta Tau Delta, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Gamma Delta (Fiji), Pi Kappa Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Phi Beta, Tau Psi Omega, and Zeta Beta Tau.

Additionally, Omega Delta Phi, Theta Delta Chi, Kappa Alpha Order, is hereby recognized for attempting
